Greetings to our glorious Ravens!

The heat in our land continues and your well-being is very important to us. Please, please, monitor the conditions, stay hydrated and take care of yourselves. NO activity is worth risking your health.

We recently had a demo, partnering with the Shire of Cathanar. There was singing, story telling, we taught the kids about weaponry of all kinds and about the art of spinning materials, from start to finish. We enjoyed it immensely and look forward to partnering with Onslow County Parks & Rec in future opportunities to share our hobby with young minds. Thank you to Lord Juan de Rojo for making the contact and putting it together, doing a great job.

From what we have seen in postings and in talking with our people, you are all very busy updating your armor kits, creating jewelry, crafting useful, everyday things, making garb and many other wonderful projects. Don't forget to send Baroness Olwen pictures and a small write-up about what you are doing, so that she can put it in her report. Our little group is very busy, all the time, and we love watching to see what wonderful things you all come up with.

Soon, His Excellency and I will be answering the call to war, attending Pennsic. This will be our first one and we are very excited about it and cannot wait to bring back many stories of our adventures while we are away. Keep your eyes on our borders, in case Hawkwood or any of her allies try to invade in our absence. We are counting on all of you!

Following Pennsic, we will be attending Rip Rap War, where there is a Curia. If you are interested to see what changes will be made with regard to Kingdom Policy, please attend, if you can. We feel that this hobby cannot survive unless we ALL take a vested interest and this includes the administrative side of things. If you can, please make an effort to attend. It will be held at 9 AM, Saturday of the event.

We hope that wherever this Summer takes you, you all travel safely, without incident and we look forward to seeing you all very soon.

Long live The Dream,
Baroness Edan and Baron Lochlainn

From the Seneshal

Ravens,

I hope that your summer is going well. For those Ravens that are going to Pennsic I hope that to see you there and hope you have a great time. I hope that everyone that is doing things outside will remember to hydrate. I'm glad to see everyone doing things with A&S and archery practice especially. Keep it up. Remember to put in names for Ravens for Baronial and Kingdom awards.

From the Chronicler

Great Ravens of the Cove,

Your Baron and Baroness have traveled far to the north to join our Atlantian brothers and sisters in the great War at Pennsic. I know they shall emerge victorious!

Please prepare for now what awaits us. War of the Wings is just around the corner and shall be upon us all soon. Ravens shall enter into battle against the Barony of Hawkwood and those who foolishly follow them. Strike up Our colors! Sing loud the songs of War! Let it be said near and far, “Ravens Cove Forever!!

Send me your stories, pictures, and great tales for the next newsletter!

In Your Service,

Lord Lothian ap Lyonesse

From the Ministry of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Ravens!

As I write this, people are preparing for War in the Debateable Lands. Pennsic War has grown greatly since I last attended and I urge all who go to Pennsic to learn something new, be it something martial, a craft skill, or some other bit of esoteric knowledge. And when you return home, share your newfound knowledge with the rest of the Cove. Our next A&S night will be making sheet walls for WotW. Details will be announced on our Facebook page when they are determined.

Yr eiddoch yn gywir,

Baroness Olwen de Montgomery
Minister of Arts and Sciences

From the Herald (Golden Raven)

Greetings Ravens,

Pennsic Wars are the order of the day and are ongoing for many of our warriors but, War of the Wings is just around the corner and the Barony of Ravens Cove is a principle of this coming “Battle of the Birds” with the Barony of Hawkwood.

Though we shall be victorious in this endeavor to come, we must be prepared. Prepare your banners, your shields, your sheet walls, and your garb to display for all to see. I for one look forward to this great War.

Should you ever need assistance with registering a device, badge, or name, please seek me out or any Herald within our Kingdom to guide you through the process.

I remain,

Lothian ap Lyonesse
Golden Raven
