Good Ravens,

We have reached the middle of the heat.....please remember to hydrate while participating in any outdoor activities.

What a wonderful time we all had at the Journey Through the Nine Realms.....we hosted the Kingdom and showed them once again the almost mythic hospitality of Raven's Cove. During the event three of our Ravens entered into the Households of some of our dear friends. Even mighty Thor supported our endeavor by scaring the giants away both before and after the event.....leaving a beautiful day to be enjoyed by all.

There are a number of events on the horizon.....Her Excellency and I will be traveling North for the Great Pennsic War.....We hope to return with good news of a victory by Our Kingdom and her allies. Shortly thereafter the regular Fall event season will come to full swing. We hope to see many of you traveling with us and showing what we can do throughout the Kingdom.

YIS,

Baron Lochlainn

From the Seneschal

Dear Ravens,

I hope your summer is going well. We have had a lot going on especially with the recent event of 9 realms. I know that many of you have projects going on please be sure to share those with the chronicler and Moas.

Also, with outside activities dont forget to hydrate. Please recommend fellow Ravens for baronial and kingdom awards.

In service

Knutr Vakrsson

Nine Realms of Archery

...more Nine Realms

From the Chronicler

Ravens of the Cove,

Nine Realms has passed and many look forward to Pennsic Wars. In the heat of summer, all of our Ravens attend the outside events so, remember to hydrate yourselves WELL. Trust me, your health is NOT something to take for granted out there gang.

Look to our event calendars, our webpage, and Facebook pages to keep up with local events, training, A & S, workshops, and practices upcoming...or ask somebody, we all attempt to keep each other well informed.

Should any need copies of this past month's Populace Mtg, it can be provided if necessary, as it not be posted here this month. To those headed for Pennsic...safe travels to and from and have FUN!!

Long Live Raven's Cove!

Lord Lothian ap Lyonesse
